

Open Window School
for children who love to learn

Facts at a Glance

- The Eastside's only K-8 school designed for gifted students
- Head of School: Wilder Dominick, appointed 1997
- Total enrollment of 309 students
- Class Size
 - Lower School, K-4: 16-20 students with a Lead Teacher and full-time Instructional Assistant
 - Middle School, 5-8: Class sizes vary according to subject and can range between 8 and 24 students
- Diverse student body - 46% students of color
- Experienced and dedicated faculty
- Total Number of Employees: 67
 - Teaching Staff: 46
 - Administrators: 10
 - Non-teaching staff: 11
- 8:1 student to teacher ratio
- Full time instructional assistants in every lower school classroom
- 2011-2012 Tuition:
 - Lower School $18,350
 - Middle School $23,140
- 17% of students receive financial aid
- Specialist classes include: music, drama, art, PE, Spanish, library and technology
- Before and after-school care is available to all students
- Accreditation:
 - Open Window School is fully accredited by The Pacific Northwest Association of Independent Schools (www.pnais.org)
 - Open Window School is approved by the Washington State Board of Education
 - Open Window School is a member of the National Association of Independent Schools (www.nais.org) and the Washington Federation of